McLAREN RESOURCES INC.

APPOINTS NEW CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: November 30, 2007, Toronto, Ontario

McLaren Resources Inc (CNQ:MCLN) ("McLaren") is pleased to announce the appointment of Mr. Dan Hamilton, C.A. as Chief Financial Officer of the company, effective December 1, 2007. He replaces Mr. Alex Falconer.

To his new position with McLaren Dan brings over 25 years of post-qualification experience in accounting and financial roles, including service as Chief Financial Officer of Crystallex International and Vice President, Group Controller of Amec Americas (formerly AGRA Inc.)

McLaren Resources is a hydrocarbon exploration company, currently focussed on its North Sea gas interests. McLaren and its partners Ascent Resources plc (AIM:AST) of the UK and Energie Beheer Nederland BV ("EBN"), the Dutch state-owned oil and gas company, have initiated an exploration program on four blocks aggregating 825 sq km in the highly prolific Dutch sector of the North Sea. McLaren's interest in these exploration blocks is 27% and the exploration licences extend to October 2010. The current work program focuses on data collection and interpretation with the aim of defining specific drill targets.
