Advantex Announces Extension of Debentures

Toronto, September 28, 2017 -- Advantex Marketing International Inc. (CSE: ADX) (Advantex), a specialist in marketing loyalty-reward programs, today announced that it has received approval from the requisite holders of its secured non-convertible debentures (the Debentures) issued in December 2013 to extend the maturity date of the Debentures to October 31, 2017 from September 30, 2017. It is anticipated that there will be breaches of financial covenants contained in the Debentures as at September 30, 2017 which have not been waived by the holders of the Debentures.

Interest from September 30, 2017 to October 31, 2017 will continue to accrue and be paid at the interest rate provided in the Debentures on the maturity date.

As the extension may constitute a related party transaction pursuant to Multilateral Instrument 61-101 – Protection of Minority Security Holders in Special Transactions (MI 61-101), Advantex has relied on the financial hardship exemption from the formal valuation and minority approval requirements of MI 61-101. As the extension will extend the repayment of the Debentures, the Board of directors of Advantex unanimously determined that the extension will improve the financial position of Advantex and that its terms are reasonable in the circumstances.
