("Fantasy 6" or the "Company") (CSE: FYS)(OTC:FNTYF)(FRANKFURT: 6F6 - WKN: A2AKL8) announced today that it has completed a $2,000,000 transaction to acquire FansUnite Media Inc. The transaction brings their visionary leadership and highly-regarded development team under the Fantasy 6 umbrella and will further strengthen an innovative sports data platform that is designed to complement the world's largest sportsbooks such as Pinnacle Sports, bet365 and William Hill, along with high-profile fantasy sports platforms such as DraftKings and FanDuel.

"With the close of this transaction, we go from a presence in four sports to innovative games, contests and analytics in over 16 major sports," said Shafin Diamond Tejani, Chief Executive Officer of Fantasy 6. "We're confident that fantasy sports players, social media enthusiasts and all sports fans will enjoy the tools and resources that are synonymous with FansUnite. The Fantasy 6 NFL Pick'Em Challenge, a fan-centered contest featuring up to $100,000,000 USD in total prize pool and the chance for individual fans to win up to $10,000,000 USD, is already online at FansUnite.com.

“With the kick off to the NFL season this week and the new NBA and NHL seasons just around the corner, the timing of our acquisition of FansUnite could not be better for Fantasy 6 and our fan engagement strategy and growth plan,” said Walia.
