

Newly Appointed Chief Technology Officer says Android release of Glance Pay is imminent

September 12, 2016 – Vancouver, B.C. – Glance Technologies Inc. (CSE: GET) (“Glance”) is pleased to announce the appointment of Angela Griffin as Glance’s Chief Technology Officer, effective immediately.

Ms. Griffin has worked as the head software developer of Glance Pay since its inception. She successfully oversaw the development and launch of Glance Pay’s highly secure and effective mobile payment system.

“We are in the final phase of testing the android version of Glance Pay on several popular android phones and so far results are positive and nothing has caught on fire,” says Ms. Griffin, “If all goes well we expect to release the android version of Glance Pay within the next few weeks.”

Glance Pay officially launched on September 7, 2016 and has enjoyed a fantastic response from users and restaurants. The Glance Pay app is currently available as a free download in the Apple app store. Once Glance Pay releases its android version, then the app will be available to the majority of smart phone users.

Ms. Griffin brings extensive business and software development experience to the Company. Ms. Griffin holds a Bachelor of Computer Science degree from the University of British Columbia. For the 3 years prior to her appointment as Glance’s CTO, Ms. Griffin served as President of Zoink Technologies Inc., through which she acted as head programmer for Glance Pay. Previously Ms. Griffin worked for 8 years at View Assessments Inc. where she started as a developer and ended as Chief Technology Officer.

Glance terminated its previously signed development agreement with Zoink Technologies upon Ms. Griffin’s appointment as Glance CTO.

About Glance Technologies Inc.
