("Arden") and Arden's wholly owned subsidiary, 2567850 Ontario Inc. ("Arden BidCo") pursuant to which Arden BidCo has agreed to acquire, by way of statutory plan of arrangement (the "Arrangement") under the Business Corporations Act (Ontario), 100% of the issued and outstanding common shares of the Corporation (the "Shares") for $0.05 per Share in cash.

ITEM 5: FULL DESCRIPTION OF MATERIAL CHANGE

On March 22, 2017, the Corporation announced that it entered into the Arrangement Agreement pursuant to which Arden BidCo will acquire, through the Arrangement, 100% of the issued and outstanding Shares for $0.05 per Share in cash.

Directors, officers and major shareholders holding approximately 38.9% of the 90,166,482 issued and outstanding Shares, have indicated their support of the Arrangement and their intention to vote in favour of the Arrangement.

The implementation of the Arrangement is subject to a number of closing conditions, including court approval and the approval of 66^{2/3}% of shareholders of the Corporation present, by person or by proxy, at a meeting to be held on May 5, 2017 (the "Special Meeting").

The Arrangement Agreement provides for, among other things, a non-solicitation covenant on the part of the Corporation and its officers, directors, employees, representatives and agents, which is subject to customary "fiduciary out" provisions and a right in favour of Arden and Arden BidCo to match any superior proposal. The Arrangement Agreement also provides for a termination fee of $175,000 payable by the parties in certain specified circumstances and an expense reimbursement payment of $125,000 in favour of Arden in certain specified circumstances.

The Arrangement Agreement was approved by the Corporation's board of directors (the "Board") upon the unanimous recommendation of the Corporation's special committee (the "Special Committee"). The Special Committee was formed in March 2017 for the purpose of considering the proposed Arrangement. Blair Franklin Capital Partners Inc., the Corporation's financial advisor, provided the Special Committee and the Board with an opinion that, as of the date the Arrangement Agreement was entered into, the consideration payable in connection with the Plan of Arrangement was fair, from a financial point of view, to the Corporation's shareholders. The Special Committee and the Board approved the Arrangement Agreement after careful consideration and advice from their legal and financial advisors.

Further information regarding the Arrangement and the Arrangement Agreement will be contained in a management information circular expected to be mailed to the Corporation's shareholders in April 2017 in connection with the Special Meeting. Copies of the Arrangement Agreement and the management information circular will also be available under the Corporation's SEDAR profile at www.sedar.com. CSE: KRI

Khan Announces Offer to Buy Company at $0.05 per share in cash

TORONTO, ONTARIO, Canada, March 22, 2017 – Khan Resources Inc. ("Khan" or the "Company") (CSE: KRI) announces that it has entered into a definitive agreement (the "Arrangement Agreement") with Arden Holdings Ltd., ("Arden") a private Turks and Caicos company and Arden's wholly-owned subsidiary ("Arden BidCo") whereby Arden BidCo has agreed to acquire all of Khan's outstanding shares by way of plan of arrangement (the "Arrangement"). Under the Arrangement, Khan's shareholders will receive cash of C$0.05 per share. The transaction is subject to Khan shareholder approval, court approval and other customary closing conditions.

The annual and special meeting of shareholders (the "Meeting") to vote on the Arrangement and other matters will be held on May 5, 2017. The record date for determining shareholders entitled to receive notice of and vote at the Meeting has been set as April 5, 2017. Based on the recommendation of a special committee formed for the purpose of considering the proposed Arrangement, and advice from its advisors, Khan's Board of Directors recommends that shareholders vote in favour of the Arrangement at the Meeting. Blair Franklin Capital Partners Inc., the financial advisor to the Company has provided an oral opinion that the consideration to be offered under the Arrangement is fair, from a financial point of view, to Khan's shareholders.

The Company is currently in the process of liquidation, as approved by 99.9% of the common shares voted at a meeting of shareholders held November 10, 2016 (the "Liquidation Approval"). On November 29, 2016, the Company made an interim distribution to shareholders of $0.85 per share, by way of a return of capital. Following the interim distribution, the Company has been pursuing the liquidation, including the orderly winding up of its one remaining subsidiary, Khan Netherlands BV ("Khan Netherlands"). As previously announced, Khan Netherlands received a preliminary tax assessment from the Dutch tax authority in the amount of €1.4 million (later amended to €3.3 million). Khan Netherlands has formally disputed the assessment, and proposes to file a tax return on the basis of no taxes being payable. If the Dutch tax authority continues to assert that Dutch tax is payable by Khan Netherlands in connection with its share of the settlement proceeds received from the Government of Mongolia, the matter could take a significant amount of time and resources to resolve. This would further delay the completion of the liquidation of the Company and impact the amount and timing of the final distribution of the Company's remaining cash to the shareholders.

The Management Information Circular for the November 10, 2016 shareholders meeting disclosed that the amount of funds available for distribution to shareholders would depend upon a number of factors and would be in the range of $0.01 to $0.08 per share with distribution occurring after receipt of tax clearances estimated to be obtained in 2018. Under the Liquidation Approval, the Board of Directors of Khan was authorized not to proceed with the liquidation of the Company in its current form if it determines in its discretion that doing so is no longer in the best interests of the Company or its shareholders. The Board has considered the alternatives available to the Company and has determined that in light of the Netherlands tax dispute and the fact that the Arrangement provides an opportunity for shareholders to receive a certain amount of cash now for their shares, the Arrangement is in the best interest of the Company and its shareholders. If the required shareholder approval is not obtained at the meeting, the Board will continue to proceed with the liquidation of the Company currently underway.

The Arrangement Agreement is subject to certain customary conditions, including court approval and the approval of not less than two-thirds of the votes cast at a meeting of shareholders to consider the Arrangement, and the satisfaction of certain other customary conditions. The Arrangement Agreement provides for, among other things, customary Board support and non-solicitation covenants subject to customary "fiduciary out" provisions and a right in favour of Arden to match any superior proposal. The Arrangement Agreement also provides for a termination fee of $175,000 payable by Khan to Arden if the Arrangement is not completed in certain circumstances. An equally valued reverse-termination fee is payable by Arden to Khan if the transaction is not completed in certain circumstances.

Directors, officers and major shareholders holding approximately 38.9% of the 90,166,482 issued and outstanding Khan common shares, have indicated their support of the Arrangement and their intention to vote in favour of the Arrangement.

Mr. Grant Edey, Chairman and CEO of Khan, commented "We believe that this offer gives the opportunity to all shareholders to sell their Khan shares at a fair price in the near term rather than holding the shares for a distribution of the remaining funds after the completion of an uncertain liquidation process in terms of time and cost."

The terms and conditions of the Arrangement Agreement will be summarized in the Company's management information circular which will be filed with the Canadian securities regulators and will be available under Khan's profile on SEDAR at www.sedar.com and on Khan's website at www.khanresources.com.
