CAPTIVA VERDE PROVIDES CORPORATE UPDATE

La Quinta, California – September 12, 2016 Captiva Verde Industries Ltd. (“Captiva Verde” or the “Company”) is pleased to provide the following corporate update.

The Company’s 2016 AGM was initially held on September 8, 2016. Even though the meeting was adjourned for another week, preliminary votes tallied indicated that a significant voting block majority from Cross River Partners, voted against Jeff Ciachurski in terms of votes withheld. This vote of no confidence came three days after Cross River Partners called the CEO asking for his removal. This request was verified by votes cast by Cross River Partners at the meeting.

It is clear with such a vote of disapproval from Cross River that Jeff Ciachurski hereby resigns as CEO and Director effective the Close of Business Monday September 12, 2016. Jeff will remain as an independent advisor to the company on matters of business development to provide advise and continuity to the massive retail opportunity Captiva has acquired through its acquisition of TGO Organics.

Since Jeff Ciachurski started commercial operations of Captiva Verde in Nov 2015, the Company has built the largest stand alone 100% USDA organic only, vegetable harvesting land position in the US. The Company has acquired world class vendors, customers and shareholders. Captiva’s recent acquisition of TGO Organics has led to a once in a lifetime opportunity to work with a major North American food retailer on a massive unique undertaking. In addition, the hiring of Ted Mills as COO has brought universal industry acceptance of Captiva through his undisputed industry credentials. Ted has submitted an immediate farm plan that leads to real time and near term profits if funded immediately. Further, the Toronto Venture Exchange has accepted Captiva to relist, subject to an approved financial plan.
